REPORT OF RETIRING
BOARD SHOWED ALL
PLEDGES PAID, BALANCE

Featus A. Pierce was re-elected chairman of the board of stewards of the First Methodist church at the organization meeting of the board held Monday night, and others re-elected were: E. E. Jagers, vice chairman; Sam J. Werner, secretary; L. M. Morton, treasurer, and Mrs. Loyd Chambliss, financial secretary. All were unanimously re-elected after a report was made by a nominating committee composed of Boyce Martin, L. Griffin, W. H. Norwood, Mrs. Mable Wilkinson and T. J. Walton.

Mr. Pierce will be serving his sixth year as chairman of the board. At the meeting of the old board was held with Chairman Pierce presiding, at which time all business of the fiscal year that closed on November 30, was disposed of, and each one of the 40 stewards present was presented with a detailed financial report for the year, showing all items of the budget paid in full with several special offerings made and a nice balance carried into the new year which opened last Sunday. The board voted to place $1,000 in the reserve and building fund from the surplus of the past year.

Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk convened the new board, at which time the officers named above were elected, and after a statement by the chairman, a report was made on the pledge campaign now under way, which showed some $11,000 already pledged, on the new budget, or more than had been pledged two months last year. The budget for the coming year, with a minor change, was unanimously adopted, it being some $2,500 in excess of last year. The meeting closed with a memorial service conducted by the pastor in memory of R. Caldwell, long a member of the board who died last week.

Rolling Freight Car Injured Two

J. O. Crider, material handler, American Well & Prospecting Co., suffered a fractured right arm and Edna Bowling, aged 12, daughter of L. I. Warrens, an employee, received injuries Sunday afternoon when struck by a rolling freight car in the defense plant's yards. It was revealed Tuesday. They were taken to the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic for treatment.

J. E. Rittersbacher, president of the American Well & Prospecting Company, stated Tuesday that Crider rushed to save the child when he saw the car rolling toward her.

The child received numerous bruises and is under observation for possible internal injuries, it was stated.

CONSTRUCTION ON NEW PIPELINE TO BE STARTED SOON

Actual construction of the new Magnolia pipeline in the Corsicana area is expected to begin within the next week or 10 days, it was revealed.

The new 12-inch pipeline will extend from Corsicana to Midland, connecting with main lines in this area, giving an additional outlet for crude from that area and in New Mexico to the Texas coast refining and shipping centers.

The pipe has arrived, it was revealed, but actual laying of the line is being held up pending the arrival of the contractor's equipment.

The new line in this immediate area will parallel present lines of the Magnolia Pipeline Company.

When the governmental grant for the new line was made several weeks ago, it was stated that it was expected to be in operation by early spring.

The line will be approximately 330 miles long.

The first circus of the season and probably the last one for the duration has completed arrangements to exhibit afternoon and night in Corsicana on the old circus lot Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 15th and 16th.

There are some twenty circuses on the road and only two travel by rail as all of the rest use motor transportation. The Dailey Bros. Three Ring Circus, which is due to exhibit here is the largest of the motorized shows. It is the only such show that carries six huge elephants, camels, zebras, in addition to the trained horses and ponies and ring stock.

While many business concerns are worried about possible labor shortage the Dailey Circus has a most unique insurance against such troubles in the presence of its six elephants. Unlike their African cousins, the Indian elephants are docile, willing and eager to work. People on the show grounds when the Dailey aggregation arrives will see the big beasts do many things not on the show bills as they help the men erect the city of tents. In addition to helping in the working department, these same elephants will later produce the most remarkable act ever seen by any elephants. The climax of their offering is a base ball game, when the catcher scoops the pitcher for poor work and the batter slides to third base.

JOE WOLENS NAMED MEMBER OF NATIONAL CAMP FIRE BOARD

Joe Wolens, a member of the board of the local Camp Fire Girls and camp chairman of the board, has been elected a member of the national board of directors of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., New York City, and has been placed as a member of the executive committee. This action was taken at the national meeting of this organization held in Omaha, Neb., last month.

Mr. Wolens, who has just returned from a visit to New York City, and who made a visit to national headquarters while in that city, was advised of this action upon his return home, as was the local board at their regular monthly meeting held in the Camp Fire Girls cottage on the Sam Houston school grounds Monday afternoon. Mr. Wolens is one of three from the state of Texas on this board.

At the meeting Monday a letter was read from national headquarters in regard to securing an executive for the local board and the information was given that two persons had been contacted in regard to the local position. Mrs. Fern C. Stewart, executive, reported on many activities of the local organization, among them being the fact that 114 girls participated in the Hobo Hike celebrating the successful conclusion of a membership drive.

A letter was received in regard to the coming Community Chest drive of which the local board is a member, giving information as to the future record on budget items.

The financial report was made by Boyce Martin, treasurer, showing all items of expense having been met in full.

No report was made by the nominating committee, W. P. McCammon, chairman, on officers for the new year. The board is now operating without a president.

GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR ENGAGED IN PICKING TURKEYS

German prisoners of war from the Mexico camp are being used as turkey pickers at the Corsicana Poultry and Egg Company on Fourth and Commerce. It was revealed Tuesday by John Copeland, manager, because of a shortage of labor here. Local pickers are being used on a night shift.

Copeland said the youngsters from the prisoner of war camp ranged from 19 to 21 years of age. They averaged three turkeys each Monday, the first day, are willing workers and are expected to prove more capable when they become accustomed to the new job. The prisoners work eight hours per day and received 80 cents of the wages.

The birds now being prepared are for the Thanksgiving market. Mr. Copeland also revealed that the pean movement in this area is in full swing and said that three cars of the nuts are being shipped out each week. Approximately a half million pounds of pecans have been handled thus far this season by this firm.

13 Students Take Army-Navy Tests

Thirteen high school students took the Army-Navy qualifying test for the college training program Tuesday in the Corsicana High School, R. A. Armistead, principal of the high school, announced Wednesday.

This figure is slightly more than one-third the number taking a similar test last spring. The decrease in participants is due, not to disinterest on the part of the young people, but to lack of eligibility as specified by the army and navy, Armistead explained.

American foundries report that 5 per cent of their employees now are women.

25 Years Ago Today

an Armistice was signed. A shout of joy was heard around the world. The will and determination of free men had won a decisive victory over a ruthless enemy who sought to conquer and rule the world. The "War to End Wars" was over. The fortunate among our fighting men marched triumphantly home—they had saved the world!

BUT TODAY their sons are engaged in another war—fighting for the same ideals and protection of freedom as their fathers did 25 years ago... fighting enemies more ruthless, more powerful, more determined to destroy our democratic way of life.

LET US PAUSE to pay tribute to those valiant men of 1918 who won the war... but lost the PEACE—and to their sons who at this very hour are fighting and dying so that you and I and all the world may continue our creed of "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Persons who have Tuberculosis must Obey Instructions
AUSTIN, Nov. 11.—(Sp.)—"It has been well said that procrastination not only is the thief of time, but frequently the thief of health and life." Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today. "Indeed, medical records in doctors' offices and hospitals prove that many persons die not because they are victims of disease but because they do not receive early diagnosis and prompt treatment for their condition. An outstanding example of this fact is the great number of deaths from tuberculosis that could have been prevented."

"Tuberculosis is a powerful enemy, no matter what its stage, but the fact remains that early discovery and adequate treatment of fer the best opportunity for cure. If the patient upon being told that he has tuberculosis cooperates fully with the strict regimen and discipline outlined for him, the disease can usually be overcome." Dr. Cox said that in line with some of the other major killers, tuberculosis is insidious in its approach. Acute pain and discomfort are absent usually, and the symptoms are so comparatively mild that the patient is thrown off guard and considers them of little importance. Herein lies the real slaying ability of tuberculosis. "The symptoms which, singly or in combination, demand an immediate checkup by the doctor are easy tiring, a persistent cough, and continued loss of weight."

"While it is true that any of these symptoms can be present without the patient having tuberculosis, this is no reason to imagine that such is the case. Therefore, if one is suffering from any of these manifestations, the only sensible and safe thing to do is seek the advice of the family physician at once," Dr. Cox warned. "If such a course is pursued, and the condition turns out to be not serious nothing has been lost. On the other hand, if tuberculosis is discovered, the patient by doing the wisest possible thing has probably saved his life."

INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCES

Herbert Hoover, discussing the controversial question of an alliance between the United States and Great Britain, declares against it. He does so on the ground that such an alliance would "generate organized opposition by the other 90 per cent of the human race" to what would be regarded as "a step to mastery of the world by English-speaking people." He goes beyond the question of a British-American league. He would "discard all proposals of military alliances as instruments of peace."

Obviously there are two sides to this question. Mr. Hoover's position represents the usual American attitude in recent times toward international alliances. Early American history, however, shows no such historic prejudice against them as many of our people imagine. The independence of the United States was accomplished largely by an alliance with France, and the Declaration of Independence expressly declared the right to make international alliances.

In recent generations the practice has been avoided, on the principle of "friendship for all and entangling alliances with none." But today many Americans, observing the new problems and perils of these times, are disposed to draw the bonds more tightly between like-minded nations with similar interests. Honest nations, they argue, must do this to protect themselves from criminal nations.

WAR CONTRACTS

"Renegotiation" is a big word, and a rather serious one just now. There is many a fight between manufacturers and government about prices to be paid for war materials. It was natural that confusion should arise, with the demand for vast production of so many different things for the compensation of which there was no precedent.

The inevitable conflict was brought into clear outline the other day when a manufacturer and a member of the government's War Production Board, in a public discussion, argued warmly over the problem.

The manufacturer, who is doing a very good production job, insists that he should be allowed to keep more of his profits. The government representative replies that renegotiation involving a rather arbitrary scaling down of profits "would go out of existence over night" if business men would study their costs more carefully, and get down to a price basis that they would be willing to accept under more competitive conditions.

In such cases, for the moment, they may both be right from their own viewpoints. These problems should be ironed out as rapidly as possible.

EUROPEAN YOUTH

There was, and is, great weakness in Italy. But there is also hope. It is in the Italian youth. The stout, three-days' battle in Naples against the retreating Germans was waged mainly by schoolboys and university students. Again and again, when middle-aged officers ordered the military cadets and young soldiers in the barracks to surrender, they refused and fought on. Recent reports tell of stout fighting still

ABOUT MARRIAGE

This marriage game by two is played,
And one the man, and one the maid;
Nor can it quite successful be
When it is entered in by three;
And endless are the woes which pour
On marriages arranged by four.
Both lad and maid are doomed
To lose
With mates which either parents choose

The mother of the boy can see
No girl, however fair she be,
Or gracious, talented or trim,
Entirely good enough for him.
Were she allowed to have her way,
Her boy a bachelor would stay.
But so the course of marriage runs.
The daughters all must marry sons.
The mother of the girl would wait
To find a more superior mate.
She's sure the city's leading son
After her lovely child will run,
And cannot understand at all
Why she for any boy should fall
And marry journalist or clerk.

If thus the marriage game were played;
If mothers had the power of choice
And fathers were allowed a voice,
Poor lads, with fortune far ahead,
Would seldom find a girl to wed.
To rich men's sons would go the wives,
To comfort, bliss and cheer their lives

kept up in the mountains, with increasing recruits only 17 and 18 years old.

"In every account of anti-German and anti-Fascist resistance," writes Anne O'Hare McCormick in the New York Times, "the emphasis is on youth. This may seem strange to those who assume that the greatest danger to the future is the generation indoctrinated in the Fascist philosophy. But it does not surprise those who have observed the reaction. In Italy the university students were the first to be excited by Mussolini and his slogans, and the first to rebel against them. In Germany, too, there is reaction in the schools."

It seems as if European youth itself instead of going to destruction with the Nazi and Fascist dupes, will help to cleanse Europe of those twin plagues.

SWEAT

When man for his sin was driven from Paradise, the Angel of the Lord informed him that in the sweat of his face he must eat bread all the days of his life.

The twin rebels, Hitler and Mussolini, thought they and their people could escape that rule. They started out to live by the slavery of others. Their neighbors, near and far, were to do the sweating, while the proud "Herrenfolk" or "lordly people" were to reap the benefits.

That beautiful selfish dream is washed up now. And for at least a generation they will have to work much harder than before. But the lordly ones may learn something—that sweating is better than killing.

WHY GAS IS SCARCE

Why is gasoline scarce? Flying Fortresses constitute one answer. A single training base is estimated to use 75,000 gallons a day. That would keep an A-book holder going 500 years. Putting it any other way, all the gas an A-book holder could get in 16 years would just about fill the tanks of one B-17. Its capacity is 2,500 gallons. It burns on the average 200 gallons an hour.

Every time Mr. American takes the old bus out to the movies or to see Aunt Jennie, he is cutting into the supply that keeps the Flying Fortress going.

HOW TO WIN HEARTS

Even the autocratic rulers of the Orient are human. Some Englishman has just been making a study of their hobbies. "If you want," he says, "to win the heart of Haile Selassie, the restored emperor of Ethiopia, give him tuna fish. Ibn Saud, the absolute ruler of Central Arabia, is wild over jeeps with machine guns; and King Faruk of Egypt goes crazy over motorcycles."

If travelers' tales are true, the ordinary citizen journeying in the Orient, would be best pleased with a gift of flea-powder.

EARLY MAILING OF CHRISTMAS GIFTS NOW BEING URGED

Delivery of the annual flood of Christmas gifts and cards, time, always a serious problem, will be more than a problem this year—it will be an impossibility—unless Christmas mailings are made largely in November. Postmaster General Frank C. Walker warned today. "Transportation facilities are burdened to the limit with war materials and personnel, and the Postal Service has sent more than thirty-one thousand experienced employees into the Army and Navy," Mr. Walker said. "The only solution to the Christmas problem is: MAIL IN NOVEMBER. Mark your parcels 'Do not open until Christmas.' That is the only way to avoid disappointment on Christmas day not only for many civilians but also for millions of members of the armed forces who are still in this country."

G. C. Hudson, Corsicana postmaster, has pointed out that the volume of mail now is far above any previous records, that open until Christmas. That is the only way to avoid disappointment on Christmas day not only for many civilians but also for millions of members of the armed forces who are still in this country. More than two hundred thousand extra temporary employees normally are employed to help with the holiday postal rush. This year, the extra employees will be largely women and high school boys and girls who are unable to work the long hours usually required, and whose work will be relatively slow. To deliver the Christmas mails on time, therefore, it is necessary that mailings be spread out over a longer period of time so that available transportation equipment, and postal personnel can be used during more weeks. It will be utterly impossible to make the deliveries by Christmas if mailers wait until the last three weeks before the holiday, as in normal years.

Wheelock Ranch Cattle Auction Largely Attended

An estimated crowd of 800 cattlemen and friends attended the barbecue at the Wheelock Ranch Farms east of Corsicana Tuesday noon in connection with the second of the Four-in-One circuit of Texas Hereford Sales when a total of 123 animals were auctioned, it was revealed Wednesday morning.

Sixty-eight registered Herefords auctioned, owned by R. L. Wheelock Sr., averaged $550.68 per head. Sixty head auctioned, owned by R. L. Wheelock Jr., were not as interested in bulls, it was stated. The first 25 animals placed on the block averaged $860 per head. Mr. Wheelock stated Wednesday that a "good sale" was held.

The circuit auction opened Monday at the West B'Gins ranch at Grapevine, Texas. The third was conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Louis Cerr ranch near Ennis, Ellis county, and the fourth and final will be conducted at McGregor, Texas, Thursday of the Central Texas Hereford Breeders' Association.

A number of out of the state bidders were on hand for the auction in addition to the Texas ranchers. Dizzy Dean of Lancaster, sports-caster at St. Louis, a former St. Louis Cardinal right-handed pitcher, was present for the auction. He owns a farm near Lancaster and was accompanied here by Mrs. Dean.

Ample provision for the comfort and convenience of the visitors had been made with a fine supply of barbecue and the customary trimmings.

Mrs. Ray Langston has received a letter from her husband, Pfc. Ray M. Langston, written on Oct. 25, stating that he was somewhere in England and doing fine.

LOYALTY BANQUET SPEAKER

The principal speaker at the annual banquet on Nov. 19, honoring the Corsicana High School Tigers will be the author of a "best seller"—Boyce House of Fort Worth, whose book "Give You Texas" has made history in the Southwest by going into its fifth printing in less than seven weeks.

House recently addressed the Corsicana Civitan Club and so when the committee in charge of arrangements for the football dinner was casting around for a speaker, his name was immediately advanced.

Boyce House has the largest listening-and-reading audience of any man in the State—an estimated 300,000 each Sunday over radio stations, as well as more than 1,000,000 readers of his column, which appears in some 200 weekly newspapers. He has served as the "good will ambassador" of the Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show; was the one-man publicity department of the world famous Fort Worth Casa Manana; is known as the "historian of oil" from his two books as well as Saturday Evening Post articles on the subject of Texas oil booms, and he helped to write the big Texas motion picture, "Boom Town."

He is one of the most "in demand" speakers in the State, having spoken nearly 300 times in the past four years. His newest book, which is a collection of 500 Texas jokes, was recently praised in "Life" Magazine.

Lt. Robert B. McMullan, wife and son have arrived from Brownsville for a ten-day visit with Lt. McMullan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark McMullan.

...from our graves WE THANK YOU

We died in the London Blitz, or was it Chungking...or Stalingrad? Our children were left behind...without care and shelter. Do you wonder we have worried so?

Now we are at peace for we know they are warm with good clothing. Their little bodies are getting strong again. They even laugh again. It is for this we thank you...for the mercy and generosity of your doll

Good old American dollars...your dollars, Mrs. MacDonald...your dollars, Mr. Greenbaum. Silver dollars from California...hard-~~litten~~ dollars from the farm country...toil-won dollars from laboring men...crackling new bills from Fifth Avenue. Yes, your dollars have wrought miracles of human love and compassion.

They have healed broken bodies, fed the hungry and sheltered the homeless on all the United Nations Fronts. They have provided hospitals, nursing homes, doctors and medicine...here and abroad.

They have helped care for the needy in your own home area...people who have been left behind on the home front while their sons or fathers are off at war.

They have brought cheer and "home" to the men in our Armed Forces through the splendid work of the USO.

They have given the "barbed wire legion," the war prisoners of all nations, a new lease on life.

Seventeen great services are now a part of the National War Fund, which is joined with our community's own war fund, thus making an efficient over-all organization serving on all three fronts...the Military Front, the United Nations Front and the Home Front. This year instead of giving many times to these different agencies, you give just once. So give generously; give all your heart can spare.

HEALTH, BEAUTY AND POISE

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY
By VERONICA DENGEL

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

T. W. Your request to know how to take nail polish from a wool skirt may be late in the answering, but I will try to help you. I am sorry to hear that you are so long, but all of my readers must realize that I have many letters, only a few of which can be answered each week. Since I cannot answer your question personally, I will send you material which has been already prepared on such subjects which you may inquire about. This material may be a little too much for you to handle at only 5 cent height. Another 4 pounds would be ideal because I'm sure your bone structure is a bit on the heavy side. About the operation that you mentioned, it won't cause you to gain any weight—continue to follow the dietary habits that you have established. I would be sure to use more calcium which will help you recover quickly. It is unfortunate that your miscarriage made this operation necessary but I would not be at all concerned and I am glad that you have joined the list of people who take care.

When sending for material offered you in my column, please remember always to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Address not in care of this paper. Remember, too, that I cannot make personal replies. For personal diagnoses, consultations, or treatment you must consult some recognized beautician or your personal physician.

J. A. R. You must certainly be on the "hippy" side as you seem to "think." With a bustline

EDEN

It was the friendly atmosphere of mutual interest and mutual confidence in which all these conferences took place which, to me, will always make the Moscow conference memorable.

Molotov Aided Greatly.
He said a large measure of credit for success of the meetings must go to Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov for his handling of the long and complicated agenda and added that Secretary of State Cordell Hull must have felt the results justified "this very gallant venture in making this long flight" from the United States.

Of measures which were taken to shorten the war, Eden declared, "the results of our discussions under this head can only be made public as they develop at the expense of the common enemy. I have confidence that the development will be found generally satisfactory by the members of all parts of the house. Military discussions perhaps did more good to the mutual relations, by the frank and exhaustive examination that was made of them than any other phase of the conference, he said, adding "there was no tendency on the part of any of the delegates to dodge any difficulty or to ignore the issue that these matters raised."

He asserted that the delegates met "on a basis of complete equality" and strived "for one purpose only, to try to bring the war to an end in victory at the earliest possible moment and thereafter full co-operation with each other to insure that the people of the world might live in peace."

Friday Night Singing.

A large number of Henderson county singers are expected to participate in the regular Friday night singing at the Missionary Baptist church Friday night, it has been announced by those in charge. Singers from all sections of Navarro county will also appear on the program and an invitation is extended the general public to attend.

better than the Japanese airmen both at Empress Augusta Bay and at Alexishaf Bay, New Guinea, where 11 enemy planes were destroyed, including 14 in the air. Tokyo radio, however, continued to claim superiority, reporting today that a third great aerial battle took place off Bougainville.

Jap Claims Denied.
The Japanese radio, which has called 98 Allied warships sunk in the South Pacific this month, including capital ships, asserted at least 10,000 American sailors have lost their lives off Bougainville. A United States spokesman flatly denied the loss of a single United States warship in the Pacific in the last two weeks, saying all American naval losses in those waters have been announced.

Two American troopships were hit by Japanese bombs off Empress Augusta Bay, but only one was damaged because the other was hit by a dud. Last week a Japanese torpedo tore through a PT boat without exploding.

Japanese reinforcements continued to pour from Truk to Rabaul, anchor of their southeastern defenses. Three convoys, presumably carrying supplies and troops, were attacked en route the first of this week and at least one 10,000 ton merchant vessel sunk.

The RAF continued to harass Japanese communications and airfields in Burma, raiding Hlo airfield for the second successive night and damaging eight locomotives and a bridge in Central Burma.

Powerful army reinforcements landed to support U. S. Marine operations were successful beyond our fondest expectations," Rear Admiral Robert Carney declared. Not a single U. S. ship has been sunk, despite Japanese claims of destroying 36 including four battleships. Three U. S. destroyers announced lost by the Navy were sunk in other operations. In the Pacific air, allied planes tumbled 67 more Japanese planes.

that it is the future Americans—doctors, lawyers, merchants, congressmen and maybe including a future president—Judge Mays said we are soberly yet sincerely paying honor to ourselves by honoring those who died for us a generation ago—fought and bled that we may enjoy the things enjoyed at the present time in free living and securing an education.

Turning to the occasion of the first World War, the district judge said the youth of America answered the call of this country, were shipped overseas to meet the enemy.

Praised Infantry.
Judge Mays said many Navarro county boys and men were in the 90th Division, in which he was an infantry officer, and many died at St. Mihiel but carried out their assigned objective and duty. In disgressing from his main remarks, Judge Mays said more power and praise to the air, artillery, cavalry and tanks, but that his observation was that the infantry—the men who bled and die in the largest number—seldom heard from—holds and conquers objectives—with bayoneted rifles and machine guns—contributes the most. He recalled seeing dozens and dozens falling and dying in the famous Argonne Forest. The speaker also recalled the rumors the night before the Armistice Day in the front line, with his men poised for going over the top without an objective as far as possible when the orders were countermanded. Many troops did not believe the report.

Judge Mays told of some experiences in the Army of Occupation, and described the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery and that of 1,000 acres of the dead are found and closed with a challenge to the youth to see to it that this nation never perishes.

"America the Beautiful," "America," and "The Star Spangled Banner" were given by the audience, led by Mrs. Elliott.

LEND-LEASE

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE Several hours after commons had received the white paper, it dealt entirely with reverse lend-lease from the British commonwealth, stating that the Empire has contributed 1,174,900,000 "to the defense of the United States" through past June.

This was in reciprocity for upwards of $5,500,000,000 in lend-lease supplies from the United States, and covered such varied items as corn-on-the-cob and socks, plane repair shops and boxing gloves.

Most of it came from the British Isles, whose total was $871,000,000. Airports, barracks, hospitals and similar facilities for American air and land forces accounted for $371,000,000 of Britain's share, goods and services for $331,000,000 and shipping for $169,000,000.

Australia helped out to a total of $196,000,000. New Zealand provided $51,000,000 in reverse lend-lease and India $56,900,000. Canada never has received lend-lease assistance from this country, paying cash for all war supplies obtained here.

The analysis of reverse lend-lease Mr. Roosevelt said, "emphasizes the contribution which the British commonwealth has made to the defense of the United States" while taking its place on the battlefronts.

Pooling Resources. "It is an indication of the extent to which the British have been pooling their resources with ours so that the needed weapon may be in the hands of that soldier—whatever may be his nationality—who can at the proper moment use it most effectively to defeat our common enemies," he said.

The figures represent an incomplete accounting. For instance, he said, many supplies and services have been made available by the British to United States forces in North Africa, Sicily and elsewhere for which no report has been received.

Nor do they take into account anticipated exports of raw materials, commodities and foodstuffs for the account of the United States. Previously this country purchased these things, the President said, but the United Kingdom agreed last summer to put them on the basis of reverse lend-lease.

To Get Needed Items. Now, without paying for them, the Chief Executive said, the United States will get such items as rubber from Ceylon, Trinidad, British Guiana and British Honduras, sisal and pyrethrum from British East Africa, asbestos and chrome from Southern Rhodesia, cocoa from British West Africa, tea and coconut oil from Ceylon, and benzol and tar acids from the United Kingdom.

The Presidential report was the twelfth to Congress since lend-lease was inaugurated in March, 1941, and it dealt entirely with reverse lend-lease from the British commonwealth. It took no direct note of demands originating in Congress for investigations and closer checks on lend-lease activities.

Senator Russell, (D-Ga.), chairman of a senatorial committee which visited war fronts around the world, suggested closer scrutiny of lend-lease and charged on the senate floor that Britain had transferred to Russia and Turkey lend-lease supplies which she obtained from this country, without giving credit to the United States.

Had Demanded Probe. The senate appropriations committee decided to team up with the Truman war investigating committee last month and have a look at lend-lease operations. That was after Senator Butler (R-Neb.) had renewed a demand for an investigation and called lend-lease "the most colossal dolo of all time."

Mr. Roosevelt confined himself to reciting what America was getting in return for the lend-lease help she has extended to the British commonwealth.

"The overwhelming benefit which the United States has received from its lend-lease program," he declared, "has, of course, been the pooling of resources and the combined effort of the United Nations against the axis countries. x x x

"One thing is clear: By the help which our friends and allies have given us, and by the help which we have given them in the common cause, we have not only made progress in the war, but we have saved the lives of many of our own boys as well as those of our allies."
